

Donation Form

Through the generosity of people...like you...critical suicide prevention tools and resources are made available by SPTS...

- ◆ For Parents: "Not My Kid...What Every Parent Should Know" , a video to help parents and other adults communicate with children and identify when a child might need help
- ◆ For Educators: "Making Educators Partners in Youth Suicide Prevention" , a free online interactive training program that fulfills state mandated suicide prevention training
- ◆ For Teens: suicide prevention information and resources available at www.sptsusa.org
- ◆ For Communities: providing support to school staff and the community following a tragic school suicide or traumatic event
- ◆ "Lifelines Training": comprehensive suicide prevention, intervention, and postvention program co-authored by Maureen Underwood, targets school administrators, staff, students and parents

For the families and teens you are about to help, we thank you!
